Bienvenu au Canada! We hope thay you enjoy the convention and Vancouver. If it is sunny, count yourself fortunate. If rainy, enjoy it. Rain washes everything clean and keeps B.C. green. It also keeps our gills moist. It is liquid sunshine.

FOR SALE OR TRADE: One used scout-ship. Must sell or for what have you, due to death of owner. Slightly damaged but a bargain for the mechanically adept. Contact M. Walsh

For people not familiar with Vancouver and desiring to find what our SF shelves have, you will find that DUTHIES on Robson, one block south of Hotel, carries a large average selection of what is available in Vancouver in the way of new books. For used books try FRASER'S BOOK BIN 1247 GRANVILLE which has average prices and a very large selection. There are a few more new book stores and dozens and dozens of used book stores if you want to find them.

Records? RECORD GALLERY 912 Robson; A&B Sound 571 Granville are just two of many.

Liquor store is two blocks south of the Hotel on Hornby street. By now you have discovered the 5% sales tax on almost everything.

WANTED: Skeleton of child less than one year old. It doesn't have to be wired together. Write to Brent MacLean c/o SUB Box 75, UBC

You might also visit Robson strasse, a three block area of continental shops (English tea and candy, German sausage and baking, Scandanavian furnishings etc.)

There is also China town, a true community of shops and good, cheap restaurants on East Pender near Main. It is the second largest chinese community in North America and has avoided much of the commercialism of these other areas.

Japanese area is about three blocks north of Chinatown on the 300 Block of Powell Street

Gastown is a newly developed area of small shops and restaurants on Water street in the older part of town.

Ask locals at the convention for their opinions on these and other places.

FOR SALE: Souls bought and sold. Good prices paid. One of this areas largest dealers. Also buy lifesblood for fan cocktails of Gestetner ink and blood. Ask for Devil Sayton.

Restaurants? Ask some local at the convention and see what they recommend. Try Chinatown.

WANTED: Money. Additional donations are gratefully accepted by Rob Scott and Daniel Say. Help the Con break even.

Enjoy the convention and come again. Why not join one of the local groups.
